

I will sing!! – Cindy Nelemans

For the glory and honour of my Jesus Christ

C            Am            F            G
I have this treasure that's finer than gold
C            Am            F            G
I know my Jesus and He knows me so well
C            Am            F            G
He takes great delight when I sit at His feet
C            Am            F            G
He fills me with His song and out comes a melody.

                                C            Am            F            G
Chorus: And then I sing sing sing, sing His praises
                        C            Am            F            G
I will sing sing sing, lift my hands in worship I will sing

C            Am            F            G
Living for Jesus just gives my life a song
C            Am            F            G
He fills me with His joy and I sing all day long
C            Am            F            G
I have no doubt that He will stay right by my side
C            Am            F            G
He is always with me He's my song in the night

                        F    C
Bridge: The devil has to flee when I lift up my praise
F    C
For I'm submitted to my God in Jesus Name
                        E    Am
The Holy Spirit makes a way right there before my eyes
                        D    C
For in these songs of praise I'm singing victory and life!
